Activities	For kite surfers, Masirah is an excellent spot specially between April and September because of the monsoon winds which blow steadily at over 20 knots. The island is an important hatching ground for loggerhead sea turtles, quite similar in importance to the beaches at Ras Al Hadd and nearby Ras Al Jinz as a hatching ground for sea turtles. If you are a twitcher, you are definitely finding a gem as you would see many species in each of Oman’s different regions including here in Masira. Finally, and considered to be one of the best locations for sport fishing in the Arabian

	Gulf, the best time for sport fishermen to visit the island is between October and March where the weather is perfect and the waters are abundant in marine life. Other than sport fishing, you can also indulge in snorkeling and diving.
